

Hunting Regulations
Bond Swamp is one of over 500 National Wildlife Refuges. This refuge was established in 1989 on the Ocmulgee river flood plain in Bibb and Twiggs counties. The refuge was closed to all public use until 1999.

Through a partnership effort with the State of Georgia and the Ocmulgee Heritage Greenway, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service opened Bond Swamp Refuge to some compatible wildlife orientated recreational uses in 1999. Hunting of white-tailed deer and feral hogs is one of the approved recreational uses for Bond Swamp NWR.

The primary objective of a national wildlife refuge is to provide habitat for the conservation of all species of wildlife. The harvest of surplus animals is one tool used to manage wildlife populations. Carefully managed hunts maintain wildlife populations at a level compatible with available habitat, provide wholesome recreation opportunities, and permit the use of valuable renewable resources.

General Hunt Regulations
Public hunting is permitted on approximately 5,500 acres of the current 6400 acres. Hunting will be permitted only in the portion of the refuge that is located east of the Ocmulgee River in Bibb and Twiggs counties. Some areas within the hunt area may be closed to hunting and are marked with signs and orange paint. Boundary is marked with White Blue Goose signs and yellow paint.

The refuge is open for hunting only during refuge hunting seasons with a Bond Swamp Refuge hunt special use permit and in accordance with refuge hunting regulations.

In addition to Federal regulations, State Game and Fish laws and regulations are adopted and in effect unless they have been further restricted by Federal law or regulations.

A refuge hunt special use permit and sign- in slip are required to enter the refuge during all hunts.

Hunters are required to sign-in one time prior to each hunt at the check station. Sign-in begins the day before each hunt at noon. The check station is located on Reids Station Road at the first gravel driveway past the railroad tracks on the right. (See map).

The hunt area is open from 1 hour before sunrise to 1 hour after sunset.

The refuge is open during daylight hours for general public use except during hunts. Pre hunt scouting is allowed year-round except during quota hunts. Refuge is closed to general public on all hunt days. A valid hunt permit is required to enter the hunt area.

The refuge is primarily river swamp with creeks and sloughs traversing the entire area. When the Ocmulgee River breeches its banks the flood plain may remain flooded for weeks. Access by vehicle and foot can be difficult.

Each hunter should have and be familiar with the use of a compass. Hunters are encouraged to hunt with a friend and should let someone know where they intend to hunt.

Alfred Bond Drive, and at the Stone Creek access. Other smaller parking areas are also available (See Map).

Hunters may not leave vehicles, trailers or boats on the refuge hunt area overnight.

Limited non-motorized portable boat access is available on first come first serve basis at the Stone Creek parking area and will provide hunters access to areas south of the launch site along Stone Creek to the railroad tracks. The launch site is primitive and has uneven terrain. No boat ramp is available. This is the only area that a boat may be used on the refuge and only during the refuge hunts. Life Jackets are required.
